

We have become aware of an “investment group” imposter scam on WhatsApp and Facebook using the names of Morgan Creek Capital Management and Mark Yusko. We believe these groups have also fraudulently used the names of other financial institutions including Charles Schwab and their chief investment strategist, Liz Ann Sonders. These so-called investment groups are in no way affiliated with Morgan Creek Capital Management, LLC or anyone at our company. Our firm does not use WhatsApp or Facebook to conduct business, and we have reported this scam to numerous regulatory authorities.

FINRA has posted an investor insight that provides information about similar social media investment group scams: <https://www.finra.org/investors/insights/investment-group-imposter-scams>. If you have been a target or victim of this scam or any stock manipulation scheme, please submit a regulatory tip with FINRA using the link: <https://www.finra.org/contact-finra/file-tip>. You may also want to file a complaint with the FBI at <https://www.ic3.gov/Home/ComplaintChoice> or consider consulting your home state’s attorney general’s office.
